This program deals mainly with practical case studies and certain key subjects, with a pluridisciplinary focus. It prepares students and professionals for operations such as large acquisitions or market transactions, cross border mergers, complex financing, restructuring, LBOs, financial engineering, and industrial projects. These are interesting operations, offering difficulties that often lead to innovative solution seeking. It is particularly educational to study them and analyze the legal, financial or accounting issues raised. Thus, contracts, guarantees, financing and international trade litigation, among other basic subjects, can be studied from different angles.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION
Resolving disputes through international arbitration (commercial, investment), the principles governing arbitration agreements, proceedings and awards. Acquiring knowledge of law and practice of international arbitration.

Mergers & Acquisitions
The course leads students through an in-depth analysis of the M&A process and the contracts applicable to selling a private company.

States & International Trade Law
The main rules and principles applying to international PPPs: definition, legal and financial structure, categories of contracts, allocation of risks, litigation of state contracts.

International Financing
In-depth and practical knowledge of the rules implemented in international bank operations.

International Tax Law
Key issues of International tax law: the basics of key international tax concepts including double taxation and its relief, double tax treaties, tax transfer pricing, OECD’s initiative to curb base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS), etc.

International Contracts
The legal and contractual scope and treatment applicable to international contracts.

Environmental & Sustainable Development Law
The main set of international, regional and local rules laid down to protect the environment. The need for corporate leverage to finance new projects to protect the environment.

International Capital Markets
The course covers mainly European legislation and authorities, markets in financial instruments, issuers, markets abuses and money laundering.

Competition Law
At the end of this course, students should be familiar with the core concepts of competition law (such as relevant markets, hard-core cartels, restriction of competition, dominant position, mergers) as well as all the actors involved in enforcement of competition law.

International IP Law
This course will focus on the international legal instruments which enables the right balance between the interests of innovators and the wider public interest. The main objective is to give an overview of the major current trends in IP Law.

SANJAY GOPAUL
LL.M. 2018
"I am pleased to have graduated top of the class and humbled to have been conferred the award for being the record-holder of all LL.M. programmes of Paris II Panthéon-Assas University across all years and countries so far. The programme combines distinctive theoretical subjects and practical case studies, all delivered by top-notch lecturers, themselves internationally recognized authorities in their respective fields. All of these combined, give us the tools to sharpen our professional thinking."

YASHWEENA TAKOORY
LL.M. 2019
"An adrenaline, enriching and a life-changing experience! The amazing part of this journey was about having international top-notch professors imparting their knowledge, expertise and as well as sharing their practical real-life global job experience to us! It has been months of diligence, consistency, time-management, active participation which has proven to be rewarding but also fun to be part of the Panthéon Assas Family."

CHRISINTA CHAVRIMOOTOO
LL.M. 2020
"As a gateway to Africa, Mauritius has a strong business sector and a hybrid legal system, hence making it a great place to study and work! I intend to continue to practice litigation full time with the added advantage that I will be able to advise clients on international issues with more dexterity. Furthermore, I was able to meet non-law professionals who allowed me to challenge my thinking process."
